seated on a green drapery

A. CARRACCI.

12 The VIRGIN, in an ATTITUDE of INTENSE GRIEF, WRING-ING HER HANDS over the DEAD BODY of CHRIST: the thief on the cross and four other figures complete the group—on copper

CUYP.

- 13 A VIEW of DORT, from the landside, with a peasant and female in conversation, and a group of three cows, four sheep, and a goat

PULEGO.

- 14 The VIRGIN SEATED with the INFANT in HER LAP, and ST. JOHN at HER SIDE, in a landscape—arched top. This picture was in the collection of the late William Morton Pitt, Esq., M P.

FRA 'BARTOLOMEO.

- 15 The VIRGIN in a RED DRESS, seated, holding a BOOK in HER HAND, with the infant Christ and St. John, and St. Joseph leaning on a staff behind

MURILLO.

- 16 An OLD WOMAN with a DISH of PORRIDGE; a peasant boy deriding her; a dog and a basket in the foreground. Painted in his most powerful manner. This picture is particularly noticed by Colonel Davis, the author of the life of Murillo

TENIERS.

- 17 A VILLAGE FEAST: a large party of peasants assembled at a feast before a cabaret; a man seated, has fallen asleep in the foreground, and utensils are distributed on the ground near him; a group of figures is seen in the half distance, and a village church among trees in the background and landscape

W. VAN DE VELDE.

- 18 A ROCKY ENTRANCE to a HARBOUR, apparently on the COAST of NORWAY, with a ship careening, rafts of timber, a fishing boat lying in shallow water in the foreground, where are several figures ; and distant vessels are seen entering the port

VAN DER CAPELLA.

- 19 The EMBARKATION of the PRINCE of ORANGE. The royal yacht is surrounded by numerous vessels, towards which boats full of figures are rowing ; the fortifications of a town in the distance : the animated subject is reflected in the clear water

RUYSDAEL.

- 20 A WATERMILL, with several wheels occupying the whole fall of the stream, seen from below ; the banks are enriched by wood : on the one side is seen a village church, on the other a picturesque thatched building, producing a rich effect : the scene is represented under the influence of a fine sky—formerly in the collection of Lady Holderness

P. POTTER.

- 21 Two BULLS and TWO COWS in a MEADOW, two of them standing, and two lying down near an aged tree ; cattle feeding in the background

S. ROSA.

- 22 CORAL FISHERS on the COAST of AFRICA ; groups are dispersed in different characteristic attitudes resting from their toils, on the shore ; a sterile mountainous coast encloses the bay and ships. This celebrated picture was purchased by the late proprietor at Naples, in 1826, from the collection of the Duc D'Ascoli

TENIERS.

- 23 CHRIST and the DISCIPLES on the way to EMMAUS ; a grand landscape in the characteristic manner of the master, in the foreground of which the sacred illustration is introduced ; on the left is a farm cottage and peasants, and a female drawing water at a well. The landscape glows with the effect of an evening sun—in the rich tone of Rubens

GUERCINO.

- 24 The TRIUMPH of DAVID : he bears the head and sword of Goliath, and is followed by a beautiful group of Jewish maidens, playing on instruments of music, and singing the song of triumph—from the Colonna Palace

P. POTTER.

- 25 A LIGHT BAY and a GREY HORSE STANDING near a GROUP of TREES ; two cows in the half distance ; and the spire of a village church in the distance

WYNANTS AND WOUVERMANS.

- 26 A ROAD under a BANK, above which is seen a round tower, with a dismounted sportsman shooting at a small bird on a decayed oak, an attendant holding his grey horse ; a fallen tree is lying in a transparent pool of water in the foreground—formerly in the collection of Lord Monson

N. POUSSIN.

- 27 The REPOSO of the HOLY FAMILY, with St. Elizabeth and a group of attendant boys ; a river and classical buildings in the background

WOUVERMANS.

- 28 A CAVALIER and LADY HALTING from HAWKING at a CABARET, the former in a red jacket, mounted on a grey horse, is drinking ; other figures are watering their horses at a river ; a beautiful mountainous distance bounds the view

B. LUINO.

- 29 JOSEPH and POTIPHAR'S WIFE—figures half length, somewhat below the size of life

DOMENICHINO.

- 30 A GRAND CLASSICAL LANDSCAPE : a warrior on a grey horse, followed by two attendants bearing spears and shields, halts near the bank of a river ; the scene is diversified with groups of grand trees ; a stag is breaking through the underwood on the right : a solemn tone pervades the picture

WOUVERMANS.

- 31 A STAG HUNT : a cavalier and lady on horseback coming down from high ground towards a river, in which other hunters are turning a stag and hind near a group of trees, with distant buildings on the banks of the river, through which another group is coming up with the chace

MURILLO.

- 32 ST. JOHN BAPTIZING CHRIST, who kneels on a rock at the edge of a river, in the attitude of prayer ; two angels appear on the opposite bank : the holy dove and a glory of angels may be seen above. This picture is referred to by Captain Davis

RUBENS.

- 33 A GROUP of SILENUS with BACCHANALS and NYMPHS, two of them supporting a Cornucopia, and others occupied in gathering fruits, in a grand richly wooded landscape. Painted with great transparency

A. DEL SARTO.

- 34 "LA CARITA"—a beautiful female in a red dress supports the youngest of three children standing on a table, who turns from her breast towards another boy, while a third leans on her shoulder.

From the exquisite elaboration of this picture, it may be justly considered that mentioned by Vasari as "una Carita bellissima con tre putti;" and again, as "cosa rara ch'ella è veramente."—Vol. II., p. 245. From the Ruspigliosi Gallery, whence it was purchased by Mr. Anderdon, in 1826, of the Contessa Compagnoni Marefoschi.

RAFFAELLE.

- 35 The VIRGIN, SEATED, HOLDING the INFANT in HER ARMS, ST. JOHN PRESENTING the CROSS

L. DA VINCI.

- 36 The VIRGIN KNEELING, and EXTENDING HER HANDS over the INFANT CHRIST and ST. JOHN, who are lying on a bank of flowers before her, a beautiful landscape, in the centre of which is a rocky height, and mountainous distance illuminates the background

S. ROSA.

- 37 "IL VIAGGIO DI RACHELE"—RACHEL, mounted on a mule, is driving her father's flock to the well of Haran. At the opening of a cavern are seen the travellers, accompanied by sheep, enquiring their way of a group of old men, whose forms are seated on a bank in the shade, and are finely relieved by a brilliant sky, from which the light is diffused over the principal group, as well as through the foliage. Purchased by the late Mr. Anderdon in Naples, in 1826, and was formerly in the collection of La Contessa Maria Teresa Spinelli

S. DEL PIOMBO.

- 38 The SALUTATION. The Virgin, who salutes St. Elizabeth, is followed by two attendants in characteristic head dresses; the principal figures are half length; and in the background Joseph is announcing the arrival of the Virgin to Zacharias, who is in the act of descending a flight of steps; beyond the building is an elaborate landscape, with a causeway. An enamel was made from this picture by Bone, for the Prince Regent. This noble picture, on which it would be difficult to offer an eulogium, had been for fifty years in the late proprietor's possession.
